Hocker Bootee.

It is conceded by our customers that the Hocker Bootee, as it is made to-day, is the best combination shoe and bootee that is made. The fact that each season records larger sales, justifies us in the belief that they are as near perfect as a high-class combination shoe can be made. We, bear the distinction of selling more of them than any other house handling a similar production. Do not buy any imitation, get the genuine Hocker Bootee if you want the best.

J. T. WALL & CO.,

A WOMAN EXECUTED.

Vermont Murderess Dies On Scaffold at Windsor.

KILLED HER HUSBAND.

She Died With The Courage
And Nerve of A Man.

Windsor, Vt., Dec. 8.—Without a tremor and without a word Mrs. Mary Mabel Rogers today march to her death on the gallows at the State prison here. To all appearances Mrs. Rogers was the calmest person in the chamber of death. She faced her end with the same stoical indifference that had marked her demeanor ever since her arrest more than three years ago.

Greatly to the relief of those officials who were assisting in executing the sentence, Mrs. Rogers' last hours were remarkably free from harrowing incident. It had been feared that the woman's wonderful nerve would desert her at the final moment and that she would be carried to the scaffold in a state of collapse. Instead, however, Mrs. Rogers met death bravely.

The crime for which Mrs. Mary Mabel Rogers was sentenced to death was the murder of her husband, Marcus Rogers, at Bennington, August 13, 1902. At the time the crime was committed, Mrs. Rogers was only nineteen years old. She had been separated from her husband for some time, and was desirous of marrying a young man named Maurice Knapp. On the day of the murder, Marcus Rogers went to Bennington to visit his wife, and that night she arranged to meet him in the woods near the Walloomsac river. While caressing him she induced him to allow her to bind his hands, and while he was powerless, she chloroformed him. In this she was aided by Leon Perham, a half-witted boy, who was the son of the woman with whom she boarded. Another woman, Estella Bates, was present.

After chloroforming Rogers, Perham and Mrs. Rogers rolled the body into the river, where it was found the next day.

Boy Makes Confession.

A few days after the murder Mrs. Rogers, Perham and the Bates woman were arrested. Perham made a complete confession, and both he and Mrs. Rogers were found guilty of murder in the first degree. Perham was sentenced to imprisonment for life, while the verdict in Mrs. Rogers' case was death on the gallows.

U. S. SENATOR DIED FRIDAY.

Hon. J. H. Mitchell, of Oregon, Slowly Bleeds to Death.

AFTER AN OPERATION.

Was in Weakened State Following Recent Troubles and Sickness.

Portland, Ore., Dec. 8.—United States Senator John H. Mitchell died at the Good Samaritan Hospital at 11:40 o'clock this forenoon, death resulting from complications which followed the removal of four teeth at a dental office yesterday morning. Hemorrhage of unusual severity followed the removal of the teeth, and, despite the application of the most powerful styptics known to medical science, the flow of blood could not be stayed.

When the senator reached the hospital he was in a very weakened condition, and it became apparent that unless the flow of blood was soon stopped life would pass out.

Senator Mitchell had long been a sufferer from diabetes, and, other vitiating diseases, and in his weakened physical condition, rapidly succumbed to the inevitable weakness following such violent hemorrhages, and lapsed into a state of semi-unconsciousness, from which he never rallied.

John Hippie Mitchell was born in Washington county, Pa., June 22, 1836. He was serving his fourth term in the senate.

It was only when his connection with a conspiracy to defraud the government of its public domain was made manifest by his conviction in the Federal court, that he lost the political influence which he had held for a greater part of a half century.

From his seventieth birthday, June 23 last, the day on which his guilt was decreed, Senator Mitchell has rapidly declined.

Senator Mitchell's wife is in Paris, France, where she has spent a large part of her time since the marriage of their daughter, Margaret, to the Duke of Rochefoucauld. A son, John H. Mitchell, Jr., resides at Minneapolis. Lieut. Hiram Mitchell, U. S. A., is also a son of the senator.

SOLD FARM

And Will Probably Move
West.

Mr. C. B. Meacham, who resides on the Greenview road, about three miles East of the city, has sold his farm to Mr. R. A. Elgin, of this place. The price paid was $3,300. There are 105 acres in the tract. Mr. Meacham is thinking of going West about the first of the year.

LAST SERMON

Preached By Rev. J. M.
Jones Sunday Night.

Rev. Joseph M. Jones, assistant pastor of the Baptist church, preached his final sermon Sunday night, before leaving for Madisonville to enter upon his work there. He leaves with the good wishes of many friends made during his residence of six months in the city.

CARL FARMER.

Otho Petty, a young farmer and much esteemed citizen of the Carl neighborhood, died last Thursday. He was 23 years old and a member of the Baptist church. He is survived by his widow. The deceased had been married less than a year. He was a son of Mr. Frank Petty. The interment took place Friday, in the family burying ground.

MOB IN OHIO

Makes Demonstration Against Imperial Tobacco Man.

Trisler, Ky., Dec. 9.—Trisler came near being the scene of war last evening. Mr. Lou Hazelrigg, of Owensboro, traveller for the Imperial Tobacco Co., was in this community yesterday and bought several crops of tobacco paying good prices. He stopped for the night with Mr. J. M. Mason. A number of farmers, hearing of Mr. Hazelrigg's presence, organized a band of over one hundred persons and at midnight went to the house and called for Mr. Hazelrigg, declaring that they had come for him and would have him or die. Mr. Mason and his sons prepared to defend their guest. Mr. John Mason, of Fordville, who has been traveling with Mr. Hazelrigg, begged the men not to make a "scene" there at his father's house, and promised to meet them on the morrow. Mrs. Mason, seeing the mob, fainted, and it required much work to restore her. She is still quite ill.

After seeing that the inmates of the house were prepared to defend themselves, the mob dispersed.

POSTOFFICE ROBBED.

Burglar Enters G. W. Allen's
Store at Garrettsburg.

Mr. G. W. Allen's general merchandise store at Garrettsburg was entered by a burglar Saturday night. Entrance was effected by prizing open a window. Mr. Allen has the postoffice in his store and the thief secured about $30 in stamps and $5 or $6 in cash from the office. He opened the store safe, but got no money from that, as the proprietor had taken the cash to his house with him, on closing up Saturday night. The burglar left no clue. Bloodhounds were taken to the scene of the robbery early Sunday morning, but they failed to make out a trail. The only articles of merchandise missed were two razors, though the thief may have taken other goods. The stock of goods was considerably torn up, probably in an effort to locate more cash.

General store and postoffice at Hood, Boone county, robbed of goods money and stamps.

Henry Spears, President of Agriculture Bank of Paris, fell dead in bathroom of his home.

LOST HIS WATCH

While Watching the Lady
Ride Astride.

While the cowgirl was riding the bucking broncho Saturday afternoon on Main street, Mr. B. W. Harned was deprived of his time piece. It was lifted from his vest pocket by the fob and was not moved until the show was over. The watch was a valuable silver watch, worn for many years by the owner who prized it highly. The robbery was probably committed by a sneak-thief as regular pickpockets prefer money and diamonds to watches, which can be identified by their numbers.

THE "DODGING PERIOD"

of a woman's life, is the name often given to the "change of life." Your menses come at longer intervals, and grow scantier until they stop. Some women stop suddenly. The entire change lasts three or four years, and is the cause of much pain and discomfort, which can, however be cured, by taking

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman's Refugo in Distress.

It quickly relieves the pain, nervousness, irritability, miserableness, forgetfulness, fainting, dizziness, hot and cold flashes, weakness, tired feeling, etc. Cardui will bring you safely through this "dodging period," and build up your strength for the rest of your life. Try it. At all druggists, in $1.00 bottles.

SENATOR TILLMAN

Secures Passage of a Resolution to Investigate Banks.

Washington, Dec. 8.—The subject of campaign contributions by insurance companies occupied the major portion of the time of the Senate yesterday. It came up in connection with Mr. Tillman's resolution calling for an investigation of national banks' payment of campaign contributions and was exploited by the South Carolina Senator in a speech of some length. The address dealt with the President's recommendations for the punishment of bribes in elections, with Senator Platt's testimony before the New York Insurance Investigating Committee and with other pertinent matters. It was couched in characteristic language and attracted considerable attention.

The resolution directing the Secretary of the Treasury to report whether the reports of the national examiners show that the banks have made campaign contributions in recent years was adopted at the close of Mr. Tillman's remarks.

MRS. BERTHA K. BAKER

At The Tabernacle December 19 And 20.

It is with great pleasure that we announce the coming of the mistress of the spoke word, and we feel sure that our patrons will appreciate our efforts in procuring such entertainments. At this time Mrs. Baker is enroute East, and we have signed her for the above dates through her New York agency. Her repertoire is quite extensive including the following attractive programmes: Parsifal, L'Aiglon (The Eagle), Cyrano de Bergerac, If I were King, Maid of Orleans, Armagat, Romeo and Juliet, etc. etc.

We want our patrons to have their choice in the selection of programs, and want them to drop the undersigned a postal indicating their choice. We will hold this part of the engagement open for one week, and then make up programs in accordance with requests sent in. Mrs. Baker will give three programs in Hopkinsville, Tuesday night, Dec. 19, Wednesday afternoon and night, Dec. 20. So there will be three selections to make. Please let us have your reply promptly. This is the most attractive series of entertainments ever given in Hopkinsville, and if you will come out the opening night we have no fear of the financial outcome. The prices are as low as we can make them, considering the cost of the attraction. To season ticket holders, who will go to two performances, the price of reserved seats will be 50c each. To those who hold no season tickets the price will be reserved seats 75c each, two programs $1.25. Tickets for this entertainment may be found at Anderson & Fowler's drug store, from any member of the U. R. K. P. or the undersigned. This attraction is not on the course but is an extra. H. L. McPherson, Sec. Treas.

Judge E. B. Sherman, United States Circuit Court, Chicago, says: "I have listened to Murdoch, Scott-Siddons and many others of the best artists of the time, and in my judgment Mrs. Kunz Baker is the peer of the greatest—primo inter pares."

Her mobility of face and feature, her flexibility of utterance and sweetness of tone, her consummate skill in ranging the gamut of passion, and yet relieving its stress by delicate humor and softening its fierceness with pathos, her masterful ease and constant charm—all these and other qualities too evasive to catch and too delicate to describe, combine to make her renditions a delight which can never be forgotten. And this tribute is not gaudy rhetoric but a sincere expression of appreciation.

Why Buy McClure's?

McClure's Magazine is bought and read in homes not because it is a magazine, but because it is THE magazine. Who?

FIRST—THE PRICE. It costs but one dollar a year, or less than ten cents a number, for over thirteen hundred two-column pages of reading matter. This amounts in actual bulk to twenty-five books costing anywhere from a dollar to two dollars a volume.

SECOND—QUALITY. The reading matter is written by America's leading writers—the best short story writers on timely articles, the writers of important series, such as Schurz's Reminiscences or Baker's Railroad articles.

THIRD—TIMELINESS. The reading matter in McClure's is not only good; it is not only entertaining, amusing, instructive and inspiring—it is also about the subjects in which you and all Americans are most interested at the time. No subjects in the next twelve months are going to be so important as the question of railroad rates and rebates and the question of life insurance. Both of these questions will be discussed by authorities in an impartial, careful, interesting way.

FOURTH—ITS CHARACTER. McClure's Magazine is not edited for children, but at the same time, there is never a line in it that any young girl might not read. Its advertising pages are as clean as its editorial pages.

McClure's Magazine

in your home is intended to work only for good. Send $1.00 to-day for one year's subscription, or leave an order at your bookstore. November and December free with new subscriptions for 1906.

The confidence of the Paynter managers increases as the caucus draws near. The following from the Frankfort Journal gives the names of several more members who have come out for Paynter:

The announcement of Hon. W. Reed Embry, Boyle's Representative in the next General Assembly, that he will vote for Judge Paynter for United States Senator, was a solar plexus blow for Blackburn and his managers.

And there are more to follow. Mr. Embry's card published Friday in his paper, the Danville News, is given below in full, together with signed statements from two other Representatives, who, like Mr. Embry, have been claimed as certain supporters of Senator Blackburn.

They are Hon. John B. Wicker, of the Floyd-Knot-Letcher Legislative District, and Hon. A. J. Thompson, of Meade county. Hon. Henry Cox, of the Morgan-Wolfe district, who has been known as one of Judge Paynter's warmest adherents, also issues a card setting forth his reasons for the faith that is in him.

Each of these Representatives pays eloquent tribute to the work of the Democratic administration in redeeming the State from Republicanism by over 37,000 majority at the last election. They condemn the abusive and vicious attacks made by Senator Blackburn upon Governor Beckham and his fellow officials, whose conduct of the State's affairs has been so heartily indorsed and approved by the people of the Commonwealth. These many cards speak for themselves. They are straws and indicate the tidal-wave of Democracy, which will sweep Judge Paynter to victory on the first ballot in the legislative caucus.

The December National has some excellent illustrations done by M. L. Blumenthal, one of the most promising of the younger American artists.

"Chicago's Street Railway Deadlock" is vigorously discussed by Mayor Dunne, who charges that the banks, newspapers and city council majority are in league to discredit his program and defeat the desire of the people for municipal ownership of the car lines.

Joe Mitchell Chappell's "Affairs at Washington," presents many new and attractive portraits of men and women prominent at the capital. Frank Putnam has a spicy review of "The November Elections."

"Staven's Monterey" is the title of a fascinating literary paper by Charles Warren Stoddard, recalling a little known chapter in the life of the famous poet and story-teller.

NEWSPAPER men in Kentucky are coming into their own at last. Editor Chas. M. Meacham has just been elected Mayor of Hopkinsville. Editor E. E. Woolfolk succeeds Editor S. W. GAINES-BAKER.

"Most Popular Young Lady" Becomes Mrs. Gaines.

Another of Christian county's prettiest and most lovable girls will be led to the hymeneal altar to-day. At four o'clock this afternoon, at the pretty home of Mrs. Julia Baker, the prettiest daughter of the late Mr. Harry Baker, Miss Alberta Baker will be wedded to Mr. Harry Gaines. The marriage is the happy culmination of an attachment dating back several years, when the young couple were but little more than school children.

The commodious parlor was beautifully decorated with flowers, ferns and evergreens. The marriage altar was made of potted plants and ferns and two floral links were joined together, rimmed of the somewhat trifling feature of a marriage bell. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Mattie Sue Browning and the bridal party entered the parlor preceded by the ushers, Messrs. Charlie Stowe and Frank Caudle. The attendants were Mr. Robert U. Gaines and Miss Carrie Stowe Baker, brother and sister of the contracting parties. The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. Jas. A. Kirtley, pastor of the South Union Baptist church. The bride never looked lovelier, attired in a beautiful wedding gown of Paris muslin. She carried a bouquet of Bride roses and wore a veil. The groom was attired in the conventional suit of black.

After the congratulations were over, the bridal party left on a round of receptions in their honor. To-night they will be given a dinner at Mr. R. T. Stoves'. Tomorrow they will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Henry and to-morrow evening will go to their future home. They will reside with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. G. Gaines. Thursday evening they will be entertained by Mr. G. Howard Stowe. Miss Baker is one of the four pretty daughters of Mrs. Julia Stowe Baker. She is the third of the quartette to wed. Two or three years ago she won a handsome prize offered by the Kentuckian to the most popular young lady in Christian county, receiving more than 25,000 votes. She is bright and beautiful and of most charming personality.

Mr. Gaines is a son of one of the county's leading citizens and is in every way worthy of the matrimonial prize he has won.

The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful and costly wedding presents.

REMODELING CITY BUILDING

Three Nice Offices and a Vault Are to Be Added.

WORK ALREADY BEGUN

No Change to Be Made in City Court Room and Council Chamber.

Yesterday morning City Engineer McClaid commenced the work of remodeling the lower floor of the city building on North Main street. No changes are to be made on the upper floor, but the old engine house is to be converted into three handsome offices for the chief of police, the city clerk and city engineer. Back of the city clerk's office will be the vault. A vault in which to keep the valuable books and papers of the city has been needed for many years. Records have had to be kept in private safes and packed about, until it has been almost impossible at times for the clerk to know exactly where to go and look for a document dating back a few years. Some time since the city purchased a vault entrance with combination lock with the view of making use of it as soon as practicable.

The police headquarters will remain where it is now. The mayor's office will be on the second floor, in the room now occupied by the city engineer.

The city court room will not be changed and the council will meet there as usual. When the work of remodeling is completed our city officials will have better quarters and rooms more commensurate with the growth and advancement of the city. In fact these changes are necessary and should have been made long ago. It has been suggested that the entire building should be heated by steam, but that is a matter that may be considered later.

Two Games This Week.

The Bethel College team, of Russellville, and South Kentucky College team are scheduled to play two games of basketball in this city this week. The first contest is billed for Thursday night and the second for Friday night.

For Thin Babies

Fat is of great account to a baby; that is why babies are fat. If your baby is scrawny, Scott's Emulsion is what he wants. The healthy baby stores as fat what it does not need immediately for bone and muscle. Fat babies are happy; they do not cry; they are rich; their fat is laid up for time of need. They are happy because they are comfortable. The fat surrounds their little nerves and cushions them. When they are scrawny those nerves are hurt at every ungentle touch. They delight in Scott's Emulsion. It is as sweet as wholesome to them.

Every Day.

It's Christmas next, And, as of yore, You'll buy your gifts This night before; As just last year You bought them all; And year before, If you recall.

Two's just last year And year before, You raised your fin And sadly swore That if you lived Till this year, you Would plan a different Way to do.

You'd have the whole Blamed mess put by Before this Christmas Day drew nigh. But did you? Nite! Not you, you'll shop This year, till Santa Makes you stop.

You're as near broke Today, you know, As what you were A year ago; And next year You'll mix in the crush And make the same Old football rush.

December American Boy.

The December American Boy is replete with all the enjoyable reading matter that the boys demand at this holiday season. There are the concluding chapters of Mr. Hawkes' splendid animal story, The Tripod Fox, and of My Four Years at West Point, the letter of which has fired many boys with patriotic fervor. Mr. Lisenbee's story, The Joy Claim, is continued, and the editor gives another of his boyhood experiences in Hank and the Walnuts. A Boy's Christmas Gift tells how one boy brought Christmas joy to a friendless little girl. When the Dyke Went Down is a story of a Canadian boy's rescue from drowning by a cow. In The Prize Offer Frank H. Sweet tells of how a boy, altho' confined to his bed by sickness, won a prize. On the Wings of the Wind is a story of the frozen north and relates the pluck and courage of a boy in order to bring assistance to famine stricken and sick villagers. Goose is a story of the American soldiers in the Philippines and tells how a pet monger saved the life of one of Uncle Sam's boys from the bite of a cobra serpent. How Jerry Bate the Hunters is a fine story of how a boy killed a bear which a large party of hunters were searching for. There are 83 illustrations. The subscription price is $1.00 a year. The Sprague Publishing Co., Detroit, Mich.

No Secret About It.

It is no secret, that Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Sore Eyes, Boils, etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Tex. 25c at R. C. Hardwick's drug store.

The Christmas Dinner.

In spite of the fact that the word dyspepsia means literally bad cook, it will not be fair for many to lay the blame on the cook if they begin the Christmas Dinner with little appetite and end it with distress or nausea. It may not be fair for any to do that—let us hope so for the sake of the cook! The disease dyspepsia indicates a bad stomach, that is a weak stomach, rather than a bad cook, and for a weak stomach there is nothing else equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla. It gives the stomach vigor and tone, cures dyspepsia, creates appetite, and makes eating the pleasure it should be.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because it is so common. Many sudden deaths are caused by it. It is the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Kidney troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and seething pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

SURPRISE PARTY

At Home of Mr. P. H. Major, Near Beverly.

About seven o'clock Thursday evening the young people of Beverly and adjoining neighborhoods began to fill the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pat. H. Major, much to the surprise of the family, and by eight o'clock the house was furnished with the following guests:

Misses—Addie and Julia Broadie, Pearl Gregory, Elsie and Dixie Kimberling, Mariam Cayce, Bessie Seay, Mattie Steger, Minnie and Myra Word, Athalie and Ollie Cayce, Minnie Smithson, Malbelle Giles, Lloyd Childress, Janie Major and Sallie Quarles.

Messrs.—Tom West, Lewis Gregory, George, Howard and Buel Giles, Hugh, Hendricks, Pat and Howard Major, George and Will Steger, Ben H. Rives, Riley Adkins, Tom and Edgar Word, Melvin Kimberling, Winston Davis, Bob Wood, Jim Seay, Emmet and Rives Cayce, U. L. Major, Robert Adams and Ed Fleming.

Everyone seemed to manifest quite an interest in the games and other features of the evening and a most enjoyable time is reported by every one present.

BIG TOBACCO FACTORY BURNS.

Trenton Suffers Heavy loss by Fire, Thought to be of Incendiary Origin.

LOSS ABOUT $10,000.

Another Factory Caught Fire, But Was Soon Extinguished.

Trenton, Ky., Dec. 9.—Fire, which started between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning, destroyed the large tobacco factory owned by S. D. Chestnut & Bro., and occupied by J. W. Chestnut and Joseph Russell, buyers for the Italian Regie contractors. The blaze started at the southeast corner of the building, and when discovered, the entire roof was a fire. There is little or no fire protection here, and it was impossible to do anything to save the doomed building. Messrs. Chestnut & Russell received two loads of tobacco Friday, the first delivery of the season. The origin of the blaze is unknown and it is claimed to have been incendiary. The loss is estimated at $10,000, with $4,000 insurance. The factory of Jos. Russell, about fifty yards away, also caught fire, but was extinguished before any serious damage was done. It is claimed that this factory was also set on fire.

Dying of Famine

is, in its tortures, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at R. C. Hardwick's drug store, price 50c and $1.00 a bottle. LARGE CROWD

In Town Saturday and Trade Was Brisk.

Last Saturday was a lively day. The biggest crowd since the circus was here. Christmas seemed to be in the air. Boys on the outer edge of town had gotten hold of a few fire-crackers which they were unable to save until Christmas; some of the window dressers had exhausted their skill; vehicles were so numerous that it looked like Main street would have to be widened, and Christmas buyers were numerous. The merchants were well satisfied with their sales and everybody seemed to be in high good humor. Amid all the noise and hubbub, rush and crowding, there was not the least infraction of the law and the police didn't have to make a single arrest.

Fairview Items.

The land belonging to the estate of F. W. Wood was sold last Monday by Master Commissioner Douglas Bell at the courthouse in Hopkinsville. Mr. Ed Fritz being the highest bidder, it was knocked off to him for $496. This land was in two tracts, one being known as the Wood yard tract and the other as the home tract. The price paid was very cheap.

Thos. H. Wade, of Huntsville, Ala., came over from Nashville, where he had been with his wife who had to undergo a surgical operation, last Tuesday and spent the day with his father, Nelson Wade, of this city. He reported that his wife stood the operation splendidly and was getting along nicely.

A SUGGESTION

From a Business Man About a Commercial Club.

Our changes in the I. C. and T. C. time cards are not calculated to suit our business men. The 9:25 of the old time card was quite a convenience, as shoppers coming in could remain until 4:30 and get home before night. Under the new arrangement passengers arrive here at 6:15 in the morning and have to remain until 7:30 at night. One of our business men suggested yesterday that if we had a commercial club a change might be brought about. But we don't need a commercial club. Oh, no! We are growing, and the more we grow, the less we need a club—we mean a commercial.

Huge Task.

It was a huge task, to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone, I could not sit on a chair without a cation and suffered from dreadful backache, headache, and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver, or stomach. Guaranteed by R. C. Hardwick druggist; price 50c."

TOBACCO MEN YESTERDAY.

County Committee Holds a Very Important Session.

INSPECTION ALL RIGHT.

Books For Membership to Be Opened January the 1st.

Yesterday was a big day with the members of the tobacco association. They were here in large force, as the situation just at this time is a most interesting one. The recent deal with the Regie people has been productive of so much higher prices for the weed and strengthened the confidence of the members to such an extent as to naturally cause them to want to know something of the outlook for the coming year.

At the outset the association pitched its plan of action on a high plane and there is no disposition on the part of the membership to depart from it. They are firmer in their determination to stick together than they have ever been.

The county committee, with the chairman, Mr. W. W. Welford, presiding, held an executive session in the forenoon, of at least two and a half hours in duration.

Reports from the various districts as to sales made outside the association showed that scarcely anything had been done—so little that it was hardly worth mentioning. There was but one violation of the obligation by a member of the association, which will be taken up by the proper persons.

A feeling of good will exists between the members of the association and the Regie buyers. The buyers have been very generous and fair in the inspection of types recently sold to Mr. Ferigo, and there has not yet been, and is not likely to be, a single hitch. It is believed that the planters will have their money in hand before Christmas, as the inspection is being conducted as rapidly as possible.

Every effort to further strengthen the organization the coming year will be made, and in order to enable everyone who desires to join, the books of the association will be opened again on January 1st for the signatures of new members and kept open until further action by the committee. Since the books were closed on November 12 many farmers have made application for membership, and the list of members will show a great increase during the month of January.

The circuit court room was filled in the afternoon to listen to speeches from Hons. Joel B. Fort, of Robertson county, C. P. Warfield, of Clarksville, and W. R. Howell, of this city.

Taken altogether, the meeting of yesterday was one of the most important yet held here, and the future of the association has every indication of great success.

BABY'S ECZEMA

Top of Head Covered with Scales Which Peeled off Taking Hair with Them.

CURED BY CUTICURA

Now Six Years Old with Thick Hair and Clean Scalp. Cure Permanent.

"My baby was six weeks old when the top of her head became covered with thick scales, which would peel and come off, taking the hair with it. It would soon form again and be as bad as before. My doctor said it was Eczema, and prescribed an ointment, which did no good. I then tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I washed her head in warm water and Cuticura Soap and gently combed the scales off. They did not come back and her hair grew out firm again. She is now a year and a half old, and has no trace of Eczema."

MRS. C. W. BURGESS, Trinitarian Ave., Bridgeport, Conn., Feb. 21, 1893.

CURE PERMANENT

Mrs. Burgess writes Feb. 23, 1901: "My baby, who had Eczema very badly on her head, as I told you before, after using the Cuticura Remedies was cured. She is now six years old, and has thick hair and a clean scalp."

Instant relief and refreshing sleep for skin-tormented babies and rest for tired, worried mothers in warm baths with Cuticura Soap, and gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment, purst of emollients and greatest of skin cures. This is the purest, sweetest, most speedy, permanent, and economical treatment for torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, bleeding, scaly, crusted, and pimply skin and scalp humors, with loss of hair, of infants and children, as well as adults, and is sure to succeed when all other remedies and the best physicians fail.

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Remedies, 25c. (the name of Cuticura, should be on the wrapper of all bottles.) Cuticura Soap, 25c. (the name of Cuticura, should be on the wrapper of all boxes.) Sole Proprietors: "The Great Lakes Chemical Co."

AUTUMN IN KANSAS.

There's a sort of rare completeness to the whitening world to-day. With the full awareness of a maiden in May. The breeze hint of laughter As they idle over the plain. And sing of autumn's calm.

The hives are still of honey. With the bees still out at night. The pastures green and sunny. Break the green kind of twilight. The corn stalks lift their tassels With a grace full to shimmer. Then bend as willing vessels 'Neath the load they have to bear.

The earth is full of treasure. Autumn brings forth hill and plain. And man is blessed in measure. That his barns cannot contain. The days are full of shimmer. From the sun's excess of smiles. And night time bath in shimmer. From fair Luna's store of wit.

As if to crown the blessing. Nature cools us with its front. And midst the pure careens. Lift the trees are gold-embossed. Oh, life is full of beauty. Underneath around, above. And so a mortal's life Is another name for love.—Kansas City Drivers Telegram.

GREEN-EYED JEALOUSY

By THOMAS COBB

A JEALOUS man is always ridiculous," said Sibella.

"It depends," I replied, "on the woman."

"I suppose you think I treated him horribly?" she suggested.

"Anyhow, it is not far from complete."

"But really I didn't," said Sibella.

"Then, perhaps, you treated some other fellow too well?"

"Whom do you mean?" she demanded, quickly.

"That sounds like pleading guilty," I suggested.

"If I hadn't missed the train it would never have happened," cried Sibella.

"Then, as a matter of fact, you were the sport of circumstances?"

"It was such a glorious afternoon!" said Sibella, a little incoherently, as I thought.

"Still," I hinted, "Maitland doesn't appear to have enjoyed it."

"Of course," she remarked, "I had no idea that he would be waiting at the railway station."

"Then Maitland broke off the engagement?"

"That's what I thought of the kind!" exclaimed Sibella, indignantly.

"But I thought—"

"As it," she continued, "I should allow anyone to treat me in that way!"

"You took time for the forelock?" I suggested.

"Eustace," Sibella explained, "offered

"HE SEEMED TO LIKE IT."

to come down to Eastingham to bring me home—so perfectly unnecessary!"

"Still—"

"Especially as Digby Boyton was coming by the same train," she added.

"So Boyton was the cause of it all?"

"I told you that I missed the train," Sibella said.

"Did Boyton also miss—"

"It is not likely one of us could have missed it without the other!" she retorted.

"If you had told Maitland you were not traveling alone perhaps he wouldn't have been so—so anxious about you!"

"I think it was absurd to wait three hours at the station," said Sibella.

"I think it was," I admitted.

"You know," she explained, "you have to change at Retford."

"That is what Digby said," she continued, quickly. "And it was such a glorious afternoon we thought it would be rather nice to go for a walk."

"Delightfully shady lanes about Retford," I suggested.

"Digby discovered a wood," she said.

"Ah!"

"The ground was covered with primroses—"

"Just the kind of simple beauty that Digby Boyton loves," I remarked.

"Well, he seemed to love it," said Sibella, "and I quite forgot we had only half an hour."

"And Boyton?"

"I suppose he forgot, too," she answered, "and then we recollected—"

"You couldn't find your way out of the wood?"

"Oh," cried Sibella, "Digby has been telling you," and I fancied she looked a little anxious.

"I have not seen the fellow for a month," I assured her.

"The how did you know?" she demanded.

"Know what?"

In Praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is no other medicine manufactured that has received so much praise and so many expressions of gratitude as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effective and prompt relief follows its use. Grateful patients ever/where do not hesitate to testify to its merits for the benefit of others. It is a certain cure for coughs and croup, and prevents the attack given at the first appearance of the disease. It is especially adapted to children, as it is pleasant to take and contains nothing injurious. Mr. E. Humphreys, a well known resident and clerk in the store of M. E. Lock, of Alice, Cape Colony, S. F., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to ward off croup and colds in my family. I found it to be very satisfactory and it gives me pleasure to recommend it." For sale by L. Elgin and Anderson & Fowler, up-to-date druggist at Hopkinsville.

CIRCUIT COURT

Can Be Held in Two Towns in Same County.

The Court of Appeals sustained the act of the last Legislature providing for the holding of Circuit Court in two towns in the same county, where the town not the county seat is the larger. The case went on an appeal from Fulton county. Hickman is the county seat of Fulton, but is a smaller town than Fulton, and is seventeen miles distance from it. A citizen of Hickman brought suit to test the validity of the act of the Legislature. The court affirms the lower court and holds the act constitutional.

MANY CHANGES WERE MADE.

New Schedule Now in Effect On the Illinois Central Railroad.

ADD TWO FAST TRAINS

Eight Passenger Trains Now Operated On This Division Daily.

Under the new schedule on the Illinois Central, which went into effect Sunday, two new trains were added, in addition to the extension of the run of two trains, between Princeton and Hopkinsville, to Nashville, making eight passenger trains on the line in and out of Hopkinsville daily. The first new train, known as No. 25, the Nashville and Chicago Limited, left Chicago at 5 p. m. Sunday, passed through Hopkinsville at 5:20 this morning, and will arrive in Nashville about 8 o'clock. The Northbound Limited left Nashville at 7 p. m., Sunday, passing through Hopkinsville at 9:45 p. m. This train arrived in Chicago at 9:30 yesterday morning. The Nashville and Princeton accommodation (formerly the Hopkinsville and Princeton accommodation), which left this city at 4:30 p. m., now passes here for Princeton at 7:30 p. m., and the accommodation, which formerly arrived here from Princeton at 9:25 a. m., passes here at 8:15 a. m. for Nashville.

The Paducah and Cairo accommodation departs from this place on the old time, 6:40 a. m., but returning this train arrives at 9:45 p. m., instead of 11 p. m., one hour and fifteen minutes earlier. No. 26, the Evansville and Mattoon Express, out of Nashville, passes Hopkinsville at 11:20 a. m., and the Nashville and Evansville Mail, southbound, passes here at 6:15 p. m.

The route of the new Limited out of Chicago is from Chicago to Mattoon, over what is known as the main line of the Illinois Central. From Mattoon to Evansville the train runs over what was formerly the Peoria, Decatur and Evansville road. From Evansville the train will pass through Hopkinsville and then over what is known as the Tennessee Central into Nashville.

There will be a complete Pullman service from Chicago to Nashville, and the new trains will considerably increase the conveniences of this division of the I. C., as direct connection at Princeton will be made for Paducah, Memphis and New Orleans. For several months the Illinois Central has been putting a great deal of work on the line between Evansville and Hopkinsville, preparatory to running heavy and fast trains over the division. The new time card can be found in this issue of the Kentuckian.

SPEAKER IN TOWN

Both Candidates Visited Hopkinsville Yesterday.

The Speaker of the next House was in the city yesterday. Both of the young men who aspire to the honor were here. Hon. R. W. Miller, of Richmond, came in Sunday night and left on the 9:45 train, after an interview with Representative Herman Southall. Four minutes later Hon. Henry R. Lawrence arrived on an I. C. train and spent a few hours in the city. He is returning from a tour of the state and is filled with confidence. He says he will have anywhere from 40 to 50 votes out of the 74 in the caucus. Mr. Southall, of this county, is one of his strong supporters and after a brief conference with him, Mr. Lawrence returned to Cadiz.
